In Your Words Sports Memories

In a recent contest, we asked readers to tell us their best Bay Area sports memory. Here are a few of the answers.

"Meeting Mark McGwire at Crogan's in Walnut Creek." —Jody Dice, Danville

"Being at the big tennis tournaments at the Oakland Coliseum in the late '70s and early '80s, watching some of the big tennis stars and my two children being able to be ball boys. So much fun, and the tennis was so great." —Sandra Mcclary, Pleasanton

"The San Francisco Giants World Series championship parade in the pouring rain in front of City Hall." —Vicki Nakamura, Orinda

"Going to the first game [Giants vs. Tigers] of the 2012 World Series." —Gina Sharp, Moraga

"Watching the Golden State Warriors have a championship under their belts and get off to a fantastic start this season. I am a fan for sure!" —Cam Reed, San Ramon
