

Best North Bay Luxury Hotels

California's north coast is one of those places you head for when you want to go wild. Big surf, small towns, and plenty of quiet — and hotels that know how to showcase the charm of each destination. Whether you're looking for a romantic night of star- and fire-gazing or a weekend getaway in a historic setting, these North Bay hotels have it all dialed in.

The Inn Above Tide

Binoculars in every room and balconies that jut directly over the water are just two of the reasons to stay at The Inn Above Tide, a bayside lodge. The main one is, of course the view, which couldn't be more spectacular — almost every one of the 31 rooms looks directly out at the city, with Alcatraz and Angel Island in the foreground. Sit on your glass-enclosed balcony and watch the city lights twinkle on, outlining the iconic skyline. The complimentary breakfast is served buffet style in the dining room or delivered to your room, and you'll also be fêted with a wine and cheese reception every evening from 5 to 7pm.
